Day 02 Old & New Delhi Sightseeing

Delhi is a beautiful contrast of old heritage and modern civilization. It offers several beautiful historical monuments, bazaars and buildings dating back Mughal and British era. Get up and have leisurely breakfast in the hotel restaurant. Your tour guide will see you in the lobby of the hotel to take you to the first day sightseeing on Golden Triangle tour. After briefing about the day schedule, he/she will take you to Old Delhi where you will explore India's largest mosque Jama Masjid which was built by Shah Jahan the creator of Taj Mahal. The courtyard of Jama Masjid is capable of holding more than 25000 people. Later visit the busiest market of Chandni Chowk which is famous among travellers as 'Silver Street of Delhi'. Enjoy riding on a man driven rickshaw through the busy lane to watch the activities of people.

Later drive past through India Gate (War memorial of 70000 Indian soldiers who lost their lives during World War I while fighting for the British army), also see the beautiful palace of President of India. If time permits we will take a pause near India Gate to capture some pictures in our cameras. Lunch will be organised in a local city restaurant for the group.

After lunch, proceed to New Delhi and visit

Humayun's Tomb (the mausoleum of Mughal emperor Humayun built by his senior widow in his memories 9 year after his death), Qutub Minar (the tallest concrete minaret of the world) and Gurudwara Bangla Sahib – It is a Sikh temple dedicated to eight Guru of Sikh Shri Harikishen Dev and is one the most historical place in Delhi. After a tiring day we will come back to our hotel to have dinner and rest at the hotel.

minimize any sort of risk. Though we try to offer the travellers the lowest possible price for the trips, but sometimes our price may be slightly higher than our competitors since at Max Holidays there are a team of many local experts engaged in organisation and execution of your Golden Triangle group tour. To ensure your safety and quality of services, we recommend that, in the event of any additional sightseeing trip, additional hotel bookings, flight tickets etc you contact our staff in Delhi head office, directly.

Important Notes

The prices indicated with each trip are based on twin share basis. If you are a single traveller and wish to stay in a single room only, you must pay the single room supplement mentioned with each trip. If you are a single traveller booking the trip on twin share price we will be offering you accommodation with a traveller of same gender only. In the event we do not find any other single traveller willing to share the room, you will be offered a single room only with additional single room supplement cost. For more information in this connection you may also contact our Golden Triangle group tour specialist in India.

For all our fixed departure Golden Triangle Tour packages, the maximum size of the group is 24, but in the event of higher demand on any given date, it may increase upto 30 only.

Indian food is a sheer delight for the traveller. On our India group tour packages mostly breakfasts are a part of the package. In addition to it we also include few lunches and dinners based on our experience for giving you a special local experience. For the rest of the meals, we prefer to offer the travellers flexibility and freedom of choosing meal and local restaurant of their choice. Our guides will suggest you restaurants you can try for a meal. This not only offers you budgeting flexibility but also keeps you free to try something apart from the group activities. It is the responsibility of the traveller to respect the local culture, customs and nature. Keep the places you travel clean, do not encourage beggars by tipping them.

It is strongly recommended that while travelling in public areas and crowded streets or/and otherwise too, keep your passport, money etc in a neck wallet. Do not carry your valuable jewellery items etc during the trip as you will not require them for the trip. Many hotels also provide the facilities of safety lockers which can be used as per the hotel policy.

Though it is not mandatory for the travellers but in India tour guides, drivers, porters etc expect tips for their service. This is not included in our price and is totally at your own discretion.
